About Cooperative Leadership Camp

Cooperative Leadership Camp (CLC) is for high school students from across our state and will be held at Camp Monroe in Laurel Hill, N.C., located about 30 miles south of Pinehurst. Teens from all parts of North and South Carolina are sponsored to attend for free by their local cooperative.

The program is an experiential learning process where the teens build a worker/owner tee shirt cooperative, elect a board, hire a general manager and design/produce tee shirts. They learn about the leadership, governance and the cooperative business principles during the entire process. The teams put together the Principles Infomercials to perform, have a leadership awards night and learn what it means to be a part of the greater good that cooperatives offer.

The week also contains workshops from other cooperative industries including the agricultural sector, credit unions, retail and utilities. The objectives are to educate, connect and promote the cooperative way of doing business and provide a fun learning experience for the teens that are selected to attend.

The weeklong overnight camp is held in June and is open to all rising sophomores, juniors and seniors to apply whose families are served by a sponsoring cooperative. Attendance at CLC qualifies students to apply for the $1,000 Jim Graham college scholarship in their senior year of high school.

Recreation

Recreation includes lake-side activities, SUP (stand-up paddling), swimming and canoeing, pool swimming, high ropes challenge, hiking trails, archery and bonfires with s'mores.

Participants Must:

- Be a rising high school sophomore, junior or senior (ages 15-18) in SkyLine's five-county service area. Parents must subscribe to telephone or broadband service from SkyLine or SkyBest Communications.
- Have leadership potential.
- Be able to attend the entire leadership conference.
- Be willing to utilize training following participation in the leadership conference.

NOTE: Children of SkyLine employees and directors are ineligible for consideration.
